

JANE SARGUS

“OPENING AND CLOSING REMARKS”

▶ Name and the title of the Organization represented:

Executive Director of the Congressional Office for International Leadership ▶ Education:

- B.A., Miami University in Oxford;
- Business Administration from The George Washington University.

▶ Work experience:

- The Frost Special Task Force on the Development of Parliamentary Institutions in Eastern and Central Europe;
- Budget Analyst in the Office of the Chief Financial Officer of the Library of Congress;
- 2008-2012, Administrator and Budget Officer, Open World's Program;
- 2012-2017, Deputy Executive Director, Open World's Program.

▶ Field of specialization:

Professional experiences and cooperation:

- Provided critical fiscal support for the Frost Special Task Force on the Development of Parliamentary Institutions in Eastern and Central Europe while also serving on the Financial Management Team overseeing CRS's annual appropriation;
- Crafted the congressional budget justification for the Appropriations Committee in the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate;
- Performed in-depth analysis and research on multiple and complex issues related to budget formulation for a program with both national and international impact.

Financial management experience and international programs in the Legislative Branch.